Fisherman's Village

Fisherman's Village is perhaps the oldest place in Koh Samui. Located on Bophut Beach, this village was originally the home of a thriving fishing community. Through the years, it has transformed into one of the most popular destinations on the island, teeming with quaint cafes, boutiques, and souvenir shops. Offering a wide range of shopping, dining, and accommodations, travelers on the island can find what they're looking here. Adding a charming appeal to the village is its rustic structures that is reminiscent to the old days of Koh Samui. The Fisherman's Village transforms into a lively walking street market on Fridays. It is the most popular weekend market on the island where vacationers can buy souvenirs at really low prices. Items usually sold here are shirts, fashion accessories, bags, among many others.

Location:

Bophut

Business Hours:

The village is open 24/7. Visiting the area in normal business hours is recommended to ensure that most of the shops are still open. The night market happens every Friday, 5pm to 11pm.
